

Yulia Klymenko

Member of Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine (Faction of the political party Holos)

First Deputy of the Transport and Infrastructure Committee

Vice minister of economy and trade of Ukraine (2015-2016)

Co-chair of inter-factional Maritime economy and security group Member of the Economic Committee in PABSEC

Yulia Klymenko is a Ukrainian politician, Member of Parliament of Ukraine. She was Vice Minister (State Secretary) of Economic Development and Trade of Ukraine (2015-2016).

Mrs. Klymenko has hands-on experience in managing large-scale companies and institutions in the private and public sectors, extensive experience in resolving complex matters, and implementing structural changes in a turbulent political environment, strong alliances with civil society organizations, key business associations, government representatives and members of parliaments.

In 1993 Mrs. Klymenko studied economics and politics at the University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy. In 1999 she got an MBA degree from the International Institute of Management.

Happy mother of six kids.