

Shigeo Mutsushika is Managing Director of the Kazankai Foundation and Professor Emeritus of University of Shizuoka. He was a professor of Russia and East European Studies, Wider Europe Studies, and International Politics and the Director of the Wider Europe Research Center in the Graduate School of International Relations at University of Shizuoka in Japan until 2018. He edited books “International Relations in the Black Sea Region” (2017) and “Romania” (2007), and published articles including “Russia’s Hybrid War against the Republic of Moldova”(2023) , an interview with newspaper Asahi Shimbun “Mr.Putin Fighting against the Post-Cold War European International Order,”(2023) and others.