

Khrystyna Dudaishvili - Director of Recovery Camp, Sincere Heart Foundation, Lviv region, Ukraine

Khrystyna Dudaishvili is a social leader and project manager with over 20 years of experience in designing and implementing social and community initiatives. For the past three years, she has served as Chair of the Board of the charitable organization Sincere Heart Foundation. She is the founder and director of Recovery Camp — an award-winning rehabilitation program for children and mothers affected by war, as well as for veterans. Khrystyna develops and implements a range of evidence-based psycho-emotional support programs for war-affected communities, combining innovative therapeutic approaches with community engagement. Her initiatives have reached tens of thousands of beneficiaries and have been recognized internationally for their effectiveness in trauma recovery.
