

Dr. Oleksii Riabchyn served as an Advisor to Deputy Prime Minister for European and Euro-Atlantic Integration of Ukraine - Minister of Justice of Ukraine Olha Stefanishyna in 2020-25, responsible for the EU Green Deal and Coordination of the Cluster 4 (Energy, Environment and Transport sectors).

He worked as the Low Carbon Business Development Advisor to CEO of Naftogaz of Ukraine in 2021-22, responsible for the development of new green businesses and decarbonisation of existing assets, as well as for the implementation of best practices of sustainable development and EGS policies.

He served as a Deputy Minister of Energy and Environmental Protection of Ukraine in 2019-20 responsible for the energy-efficiency, innovation, EU Green Deal alignment and carbon pricing.

Dr.Riabchyn was a Member of Ukrainian Parliament 2014-2019. He was a chair of the Subcommittee on Energy Saving and Energy Efficiency of the Energy Committee. He championed initiatives supporting e-mobility, renewable energy and those focused on creating an energy efficiency market in Ukraine.

Dr. Oleksii Riabchyn represented Ukraine in Conferences of the Parties to the UNFCCC in Paris, Marrakesh, Bonn, Katowice, Madrid, Glasgow, Sharm-el-Sheikh, Dubai and Baku.