

Andrian PROKIP

Head of Energy Programs at the Ukrainian Institute for the Future, Ukraine

Andrian Prokip is the director of the Energy Program at the Ukrainian Institute for the Future, an independent think tank in Kyiv, and serves as a Senior Associate at the Kennan Institute. He has scholarships in the USA, received his PhD in 2010 and habilitation in 2019. On a regular basis, Dr. Prokip publishes op-eds in the US and EU tracking changes and reforms in the Ukrainian energy sector and general changes in the country as well.