

Maria-Gabriela HORGĂ

Chair of the Committee on Budget, Finance, Banking and Capital Market, Romania

In 2008, she graduated from the Faculty of International Economic Relations, with instruction in English, at the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE). She later earned a PhD in Management from ASE and held successive academic positions as assistant professor and lecturer at Ovidius University in Constanța. She also served as an associate lecturer at the Faculty of Management, ASE Bucharest. Since October 2019, she has been an associate lecturer at the Faculty of Business Administration in Foreign Languages (FABIZ) at ASE, teaching subjects such as Investment Management, Business Project Management, Public and Private Organizations, and Banking Techniques and Operations (TOB) in French.

Her professional foundation is supported by over 30 scientific papers and studies published in prestigious national and international journals, participation in international conferences, as well as authored books and developed university courses.

Throughout her professional career as an economist, Gabriela has combined academic expertise with experience in both business and public administration. Between 2012 and 2014, she worked at the Ministry of Economy and the National Agency for Fiscal Administration, holding various positions.

Since December 2019, she has been serving as State Secretary at the Prime Minister's Chancellery, with responsibilities covering business environment, foreign investors, public finance, and taxation.