

Marius Cara

Head of the European Investment Bank (EIB) Group Office in Romania

Marius Cara is the Head of the European Investment Bank Group Office in Romania, representing the EIB Group at institutional level and in relations with existing and potential beneficiaries of EIB financing.

Before this appointment, Marius Cara served as Deputy Head of the Investor Relations and Sustainable Finance Division at the EIB. In this role, he was responsible for maintaining regular dialogue with investors, rating agencies, credit and market analysts, as well as for broader market communication regarding EIB developments. He has been directly involved in the promotion and marketing of the EIB's sustainable debt products - Climate Awareness Bonds and Sustainability Awareness Bonds - and in presenting the EIB's strategy at conferences and investor events.

In 2021, Marius was seconded to the European Commission for a period of three years to support the NextGeneration EU funding programme. The main objectives of this secondment were to provide technical expertise and help build the Commission's investor relations capacity.

Marius joined the EIB in 2006 as Advisor to the Audit Committee and moved to the Capital Markets Department in 2011. Prior to joining the EIB, he worked for several years as an internal auditor within the United Nations system and as a consultant with PricewaterhouseCoopers. He holds a degree in Business Administration from the Academy of Economic Studies in Bucharest, Romania, and is a Fellow Chartered Certified Accountant (FCCA). He is also a member of the Romanian Chamber of Financial Auditors (CAFR) and the Romanian Body of Expert and Chartered Accountants (CECCAR).

Marius is fluent in English and French, and a native Romanian speaker.
